Church Spring Clean

I am looking for volunteers to come along after the 10am Mass on Saturday 22nd March to help clean the church for Easter. If you are available your help will be appreciated.

5th Sunday Lent, B. The seed must die. The grain of wheat has to be buried in the cold damp earth as in the tomb. Then it has to die. If it didn't die, no new life would come forth. But when it dies, from the grave of the old grain, a shoot of new wheat miraculously springs forth. It is an amazing paradox. Life coming from death! Each of us is like a grain of wheat planted by God.

Just as a grain of wheat must die so as to produce a harvest, so we must die to self in order to bear the fruits of love, and realise our full potential as human beings and children of God. This dying to self is a gradual process and happens in little ways. Every act of humility involves dying to pride. Every act of courage involves dying to cowardice. Every act of kindness involves dying to cruelty. Every act of love involves dying to selfishness. Thus, the false self dies, and the true self, made in God's image, in born and nurtured. It is by giving that we receive; it is by forgiving that we are forgiven. It is by dying that we are born to eternal life.

Bishop Toal: Statement on Monsignor Thomas Millar:

Monsignor Thomas Millar, who has not been exercising public ministry since November 2021, has been charged with non-recent abuse and a report has been sent to the Procurator Fiscal.

The Diocese is not able to comment further but will continue to uphold its mandatory Duty of Care, while encouraging anyone who has experienced abuse in a church setting to contact the Diocesan Safeguarding Team. All allegations, including non-recent ones, are referred to Police Scotland.

If you have any concerns please contact the Diocesan Safeguarding Office on: Email: veronicamckenna@rcdom.org.uk or Telephone: 01698 269114 (Option 3 for Safeguarding). I ask your prayers, especially as we approach Holy Week, for all affected by this matter. With my prayers and best wishes,

Yours in Christ,
+ Joseph Toal
